1st May 2012

Dear Sir,

Nine years back we had launched a scholarship programme for the economically and socially marginalized group in higher education. So far we have given scholarship to around 1200 students. The scholarship covers the entire cost of education in any college/institute/university of the student's choice in the country for five years.

We are inspired by the idea that unless children from these groups have access to centers of excellence, they will not have access to structures of power and economic opportunities. This year we have earmarked around 250 scholarships specifically for BPL category/ Schedule Caste/ Schedule Tribe students (sponsored by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Tata Group of Companies, BHEL, and others).

We shall be grateful to you, if you could ask someone in your office display the attached advertisement in your office and also inspire extremely poor but very bright BPL/Schedule Caste/ Schedule Tribe students to apply for the scholarship. The last date is 15th June 2012. The students can apply online on www.faeaindia.org.

I do hope that you will be able to inspire the poorest of the poor and yet the best students to apply. We are particularly looking forward to students, who are unable to avail of the opportunity to study in institutions of National Importance/Excellence for want of funds.

I am herewith enclosing a copy of the advertisement.

With warmest personal regards,
Sincerely yours,
for FAEA,

Vijay R. Mehta
